Standards and rules for safe diving practices and liability release

By participating in the dive program of Coraya Divers, you are agreeing to follow the safety rules of non-decompression diving. You must follow the directions related to any rules given by the management, the dive instructors, and the dive masters. By infringing upon these rules, you might face to be excluded from our dive program without any compensation. If in any case an accident is to happen due to disobedience of any of the given rules, the diver is responsible for all possible damages and costs being created, concerning the rescue and medical care processes.

Rules to be followed in our dive center.

I, agree to the following:

- I must present a medical statement that declares I am fit for diving (not older than two years!) up to the diver's age of 40. Above the age of 40 it must not be older than one year.
- to pay attention during briefings and to follow all instructions and advice given by the management, the dive instructors or dive guides.
- I will never dive alone (unless certified to do so)
- I will follow the buddy system throughout every dive:
 - plan dives- and agree before the actual dive on communications, procedures and reuniting in case of separation, and emergency procedures with my buddy.
 - be aware of me and my buddy's air consumption, the minimum amount of pressure after ascending has to be 40 bar.
 - to maintain good buoyancy and adjust weighting at the surface before the dive.
- I will never dive without a dive computer
- The maximum depth for beginners is 18m, for advanced divers 30m (depending on certification level), only with a professional dive Guide: 40m (by Egyptian law)
- I will make always a safety stop at 5m for 3 min, always respect the limits of the recreational dive tables and never plan decompression dives.
- to be familiar with my diving equipment – dive never without a BCD- and apply the buddy check system before every dive.
- to never wear gloves or use an underwater pointer stick (Forbidden by Egyptian law)
- to maintain good mental and physical fitness for diving and avoid the use of dangerous drugs or alcohol
- to make sure that I drink enough water during the day (min 3 liter)
- to stop diving a minimum of 24 hours prior to flying
- Divers with less than 25 dives must be guided (guiding fees apply)
- Cancellations of bus or boat trips are accepted at no cost until 12 PM on the day before the excursion. After this period, a cancellation fee of 50% of the excursion costs will be charged.
- The dive center has the right to change the dive locations due to adverse weather conditions without any notice, for safety reasons.

Liability release

I understand and agree that both Coraya Divers and their respective employees will be exculpated from any liability or responsibility in case of injury, death or damages done to me or my family, heirs, or assigned persons that may occur as a result of my participation in this diving program, or as a result of the negligence of any party including the released parties, passive or active. I might be held personally responsible and liable for any damage or loss of rental equipment of Coraya Divers. The dive center will not be held liable for lost or damaged private equipment of its guests.

I have read the above statements and have clarified any questions that I had to my satisfaction.
